

RESUME

Joelie Sanguya, PIKSUK MEDIA INC.,
PO Box 107, Clyde River, Nu, 867-924-6382

KEY QUALIFICATIONS

- Ability to facilitate groups of people and conduct meaningful consultation
- Twenty five years in education, a combination of both teaching and administration
- Sound understanding of Inuit Qaujimaqatuqangit
- Fluent in reading and writing Inuktitut and English
- Effective organizational and communication skills
- Strong research and report writing skills for a variety of purposes such as course curriculum, publications, comprehensive reports, professional papers
- Sound working knowledge of territorial and federal governments, Designated Inuit Organizations and the Nunavut Final Agreement
- Ability to work with computers in word processing, designs and monitoring of data and inventories, Claris Works
- Strong leadership skills
- Professional Qamutiik and Inuit Qayaq Building
- Qimuksiqti (Inuit Dog Musher)

EDUCATION

- 1975/77 Teachers Education Program
Arctic College/University of Saskatchewan
Iqaluit/Fort Smith/Saskatchewan
- 1984/85 Ontario School for the Deaf
Belleville, Ontario

EMPLOYMENT SUMMARY

COORDINATOR 2002-present
Sulugaaq Justice Committee
Clyde River, Nunavut

CONSULTANT 1998-present
Self Employed

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT FACILITATOR 1997-98
Municipality of Clyde River, Nunavut

TEACHER 1977-97
Department of Education
Government of the N.W.T.
Clyde River, Nunavut

VICE PRINCIPAL 1988 - 97
PRINCIPAL 1980-1982

EMPLOYMENT DETAILS

Coordinator, Sulugaaq Justice Committee
Prepare meetings, workshops and Justice Forums in Clyde River. Teach
Community Justice Forums and run workshops on Community Justice.

On the Land Healing Process and Inuit Traditional Knowledge Workshops
Coordinated On the Land Healing Process and Inuit Traditional Knowledge
Workshops in summer of 2005.

The Mystery of Arqioq (2007)

Executive Producer, documentary co-production Piksuk Media Inc./Inuit Communications Systems Ltd.

Musk Ox Patrol

Production and Locations Coordinator "Musk Ox Patrol" film Shooting in Clyde River, 2003 & 2004. Produced by Words N Pictures Videos, Director, Ole Gjerstad.

Climate Change

Interviewed Inuit on Climate Change in five communities southern and Inuit Qaujimaqatuqangit questions.

Feasibility Study on Language Centre

Worked with Consilium on Feasibility on Nunavut Language Centre.

Consultant

Work on contract basis on various projects including Inuit Qaujimaqatuqangit, Inuit traditional economy, Inuit traditional economics, designing and implementing group facilitation and motivational workshops, facilitation of healing workshops, visioning and strategy planning.

Community Development Facilitator

Worked for the Municipality on community development initiatives by working with community interest groups to develop a Vision for economic development in Clyde River.

Vice Principal/Career Technology Studies

Administration and planning of Quluq School in Clyde River while at the same time developing and delivering course curriculum in northern studies for alternative class studies in Career Technology.

Teacher

Taught students at the elementary level at Quluq School in Clyde River in a variety of grades and subjects. Worked on the territorial Board of Education curriculum development of Piniqtaqavut and Inuuqatigiit.

SELECTED REPORTS

- Pond Inlet Wellness Plan
- Department of Sustainable Development Economic Development Survey
- Kakivak Association Employment Officer Survey
- Department of Sustainable Development IQ Framework
- Feasibility Study for Attraction Development at Clyde River (Background Report)
- Climate Change interviews in Grise Fiord, Resolute Bay, Pond Inlet, Clyde River and Pangnirtung

